This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

Happy Thanksgiving, also some things happened this week.

Well NVIDIA has some shake ups, they found a dead guy in one of Bernie's houses, and the holidays are around the corner. YA know what would be a great gift for that hard to buy for person? Some delicious Colockum Craft Coffee, some savory Ember Forged spices, a lovely candle from Bare Naked Candles, a mug from Horrible Designs, and some lovely artwork from MaddK studios. the links to all these sites and more can be found at ihadtosayitpdodcast.com/shop-local/ Also I gave out a recipe that I haven't actually tried yet, but it's what I am thinking about doing for Thanksgiving.
