This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

There is going to be blowback

It's been a heck of a week, and it's only Tuesday. There has been a lot of goings on. The weak minded are trying to blame everything on race. People are fed up. Anthony verdict, migrant attack in Belfast, and a finding of incompetence. There is going to be blowback. As always, I have thoughts.

Recipe this week : Toast.
