This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

Pointless Pardons and a HOT chip

Hey everyone, sorry for the delay on this one, life happened to me hard this weekend and I had to redo this one, and here we are. To start with I did the paqui one chip challenge this weekend with a friend of mine. There is a video available on the youtube channel for this show, and while you are there subscribe, as I am going to start posting stuff there too. Mostly shorts for now but also any future lives will be there and you will get the notifications when ever I go live. Secondly the main focus of this episode is the recent announcement that Brandon is pardoning all federal cases of simple possession of marijuana. This is not nearly the W that the pro pot group generally seems to think it is, and is really just a pandering for votes a month before a crucial election cycle where the dems stand to lose control of a lot of seats, because in the last two years of having control of both houses of congress and the white house, they still haven't managed to do much of anything positive for their constituents, and people are getting fed up. The empty promises and blame games are not enough to carry elections this go round, so they have to pander hard, and they are. That being said sorry again for being late, hope you enjoy the episode, and go watch me do something dumb. #paquionechipchallenge #onechipchallenge #stilldontgethashtags the video <https://youtu.be/nIM38OA82QM> <https://www.horribledesigins.com/> <https://ihadtosayitpodcast.com/> --- This episode is sponsored by · Anchor: The easiest way to make a podcast. <https://anchor.fm/app> <https://ihadtosayitpodcast.com/>
