This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

Chaos in Congress, the Middle East, And the East Coast

A lot has happened this week. We have Congress in disarray, Israel being attacked by HAMAS and multiple left wing activists apparently being bit by the fruits of their own activism. Fun stuff across the boards. Also an announcement for you listeners. Maybe actual take part in this one.
