This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the Jason Stapleton Program, definately worth a listen!

596: Why Justin Amash Says He Voted for Obamacare Lite

Last week Rep. Amash wrote a two-page letter explaining why he voted for the Republican healthcare modification to Obamacare.

Darren and I are divided over his comments. Well, not really decided since I can't argue any of the points he made on today's show.

I'm jus a little less critical than he is.

We ask our representatives to treat liberty as a primary political value and always to vote in a way that takes us closer to liberty. Did Justin Amash do that? I'll let you be the judge.

Texas is set to open its own gold depository. This is shockingly good news. It means Texans (and maybe the rest of us) will be able to deposit gold into the depository and use it as real money through checking and debit accounts.

I'll read you the story today. My information is limited, but I'm going to see about getting an expert on the show to talk us through what it all means.

On the plus side, we talk a little about fractional reserve banking in today's episode which should give you a much clearer picture of how banking works.
