This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

A Conversation with Lauren from the Beer'd AI Podcast

In this episode I sat down with Lauren from the Beer'd AI podcast. A show where they talk about two of the greatest things in the world. Beer and Weird AI. It is a great show, with a lot of positivity and a great rapport between Lauren and her brother John, the regular co-host or the people she has on for the "very special" guest episodes. Either way it is always a good time and I really recommend you check them out. We talked about the hurricane, being a band kid, cooking, the gym, and assorted other stuff. It was truly a hoot.
