This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the Jason Stapleton Program, definately worth a listen!

On Anarchy, with Michael Malice

"Does Michael Malice need an introduction at this point? If you don't know who he is or what he's about, you need to catch up on the internet.

He joined us to talk about his new book, The Anarchist Handbook, and we had a great back-and-forth. As usual, he and Jason are distinctly different flavors, but they're more peanut butter and jelly than oil and water. They both love the banter, and we know you guys will too.

Over the next 8 weeks, he'll be personally mentoring a small group of entrepreneurs who want help creating and launching their first digital product. It's the first step on a journey toward total autonomy.

You have until June 30th to enroll so time is running out.

Six months from now, you are going to be somewhere. The decisions you make today will determine where that "somewhere" is.

Make it someplace worth being.
