This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

FAA groundings, Response teams disbanded and Outages

Yeah, so the title pretty much sums it up. It's been an interesting week. On the upside this was the first stream that was free from technical issues. I'd be lying if I said I had anything to do with that. New computer, new camera, same guy behind the mic. However these new toys have made me think I need to start taking this show a little more seriously, so there are going to be some changes on the horizon. But not today. Things are settling down in the rest of my life so I might actually have the time to try and make this a decent show soon, and I'm going to take you guys with me. Don't worry though. I'm still going to be the same cussin, ranting Aaron you all have come to expect, just a little better organized and a little more prepared. In the meantime do the things,
