This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

Maui Wowie, Excuses, Oversteps, & some Humble Pie

It's been another week. This show keeps sliding into the political rather more than I intended, but that is what is sticking in my craw lately. Things are moving faster, and not necessarily in a way I feel good about. Whether it is due to stupidity or nefarious intent I'll leave to you to decide, but here are some of my thoughts for the week. Hope it works for you.
