This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

A Conversation with the lads from 69 Whiskey

I sat down and had a LONG conversation with Eric & Matt, the hosts of 69 Whiskey. It's not a bar pod. That being said I enjoyed talking to these guys and hopefully you will have as many laughs listening to this as we had recording it. This went real long, part two will follow next week. OR you could go sign up to support the show either through patreon or buy me a coffee and get the whole thing in one shot, including special bonus audio that won't be in either free feed.
