This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

The Next Cody Episode Pt 1

In the first of the new guest host episodes I am joined once again by friend of the show Cody. And true to every time we have tried to record this episode was rife with technical issues. But we had a good conversation, and here is the first part of it. Hope you enjoy it, and if you are interested in guesting on the show, reach on out to me and we will set something up.
