Well not exactly. He told them is America is funding the defense of Europe and they need to pick up the slack by allocation more of their GDP to national defense.

And he's absolutely right. Many of the 29 NATO countries provide little to nothing in the way of their own national defense. NATO was not designed to be a replacement for a standing Army. It was meant to be a union of defense.

A ruling by a federal appeals court now allows TSA to do pretty much anything they want to you and be immune from prosecution. It's crazy but true. Listen to the show to find out the details.
