As the gun debate rages in America students are walking out of class in protest of the gun violence experienced in Florida.

Now, I don't know if these kids understand the issues or if their protests will ever amount to anything but I do know that we have a very rare right in this country and that is the right to peacefully protest your government.

So I ask you the question, "How should we treat these young people?" Should we criticize them? Punish them or support them?

I'll discuss on today's show.
