This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

They're REALLY Bad at This

Week two of the new time slot. Some things happened. Another attempt on the president and his staff. Comey is being charged again. Kash arrested a green beret for betting on America, but not a single person from congress. Also they FINALLY arrested fraudsters in Minnesota, and tampon Timmy tried to take the credit for it, after the city of Minneapolis said they weren't involved. Also go follow Lisa on X
