It's a story so unbelievable you'll have a hard time wrapping your brain around how it isn't the top news story on every station in the world.

I'm talking genocide on the scale of Nazi Germany. I'm not exaggerating. In China today, hundreds of thousands of people are being rounded up every year and killed off to harvest their organs. Not because they are criminals or even being accused of a crime. They are being persecuted and killed for their religious beliefs.

Today Mitchell Gerber blows the lid off this story and helps me understand the scale on which the Chinese government, doctors, and hospitals are conspiring to commit crimes against humanity.
