This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

The Jury Is In

There is finally another guest episode! This week I am joined by Kevin, host of The Jury Room, a true crime podcast. Kevin is a great guy and we had a really good conversation. We talked about entertainment, work, coming back to a semblance of normalcy, and the podcast community. Hopefully you enjoy listening as much as we enjoyed shooting the bull.

Check out The Jury Room where ever you get your podcast fix.
