This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the Jason Stapleton Program, definately worth a listen!

Carol Roth Discusses the War on Small Business

"Carol Roth describes herself as a "recovering investment banker." She's also a national media personality and one of the country's most successful business advisors. In this interview, she joined us to talk about her new book, "The War on Small Business: How the Government Used the Pandemic to Crush the Backbone of America."

If that title doesn't get your attention, you should probably check your pulse. We had a great conversation, and you should go get her book.

You can find it anywhere, but if you'd like to support small businesses when purchasing a book that advocates for small businesses, then she offered that you can buy it here:
