This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

Ranty Ranty

So in another bout of stream of consciousness podcasting, Aaron proceeds to get all ranty. Shocking ain't it? Also did you know the drawing for the gift cards was the other night? Well you had a month to enter, maybe next time you actually do the little thing I want and get some free stuff on me. In the meantime go to horribledesigins.com and buy some stuff, the holidays are around the corner and supporting a small independent business is good for the soul. Use the code IHADTOSAYIT at checkout and get 10% off your order. Also call the damn phone number and leave me a message, it will be you holiday gift to your favorite ranty podcaster. 815-
