Should transgender athletes be allowed to compete against the sex of their choosing? There are a lot of people who say yes. I think you can look at it one of two ways. You can either segregate the sexes allowing for more equal competition and thus entertaining competition or you can put everyone together and let the best person win.

Both have their advantages but what I don't think you can do is let men compete in a segregated contest against women no matter what sex they identify with.
