This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

Bank Bailouts, censorship, and leave them kids alone

Okay, so a couple of banks collapsed, and the government bailed them out. Now no surprises there, but a nasty side effect of this is a congressman showing they just don't learn and asking if there was a plan in place to censor information about this to prevent another run on the banks. They just don't learn. Also I have some things to say about some people that are preying on kids. If you are new to the show buckle up. I have no patience for that particular flavor of scumbaggery.
