This is another podcast from one of the many podcasts that I like to listen to. This one is from the I Had to Say It podcast.

I HAD to RAGE!!

This week I am joined by Jim of the Film Rage podcast. It is a fantastic show where they watch and review movies new and streaming. It is a great program and one of the ones I never miss. We had a great conversation that covered everything from entertainment to politics. It was a great time and I hope you guys enjoy listening to it as much as we enjoyed recording it.
